Welcome to Wilkins Woodworking

Welcome to Wilkins Woodworking the home of Gordon Wilkins and some of his favorite projects. Feel free to explore and take a look around.

If your interest is bookshelves, cabinets, and countertops, then take a look at the built-ins section of the site. My reproductions page contains a couple reproductions that are favorites among my customers. The Small Projects page contains projects that I've made others as gifts as well as sell to customers.

Wilkins Woodworking of Virginia's Northern Neck has been owned and operated by Gordon Wilkins for the past 8 years. While most customers are from the local and Richmond areas, he has accepted commissions from as far away as New York City.
